

CEMETERY FACTS

LIBERTY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, SPARTANBURG, SOUTH CAROLINA

- There are 702 graves in the cemetery with some tombstone information. Most have name and dates; a few have initials only.
- There are 184 graves marked by fieldstones only. Many of them are likely to predate the more formal tombstones. Also a number of fieldstone markers were removed from the cemetery in the 1970's.
- Granite tombstones that are now unreadable mark 57 graves.
- 24 sites are slightly sunken in the manner of old burials, but have no marker at all.
- A section of the cemetery is marked as containing the graves of slaves.
- There are 1793 sites in the cemetery which appear to be vacant. It is likely that many of them do contain bodies, even though there is no visible evidence of such. A number of those sites are inside the various walled "family" plots.
- The earliest born "documented" person to be buried in the cemetery was James Bryant (1774 – November 19, 1858).
- The first "documented" person to be buried in the cemetery was Elizabeth Johnson (October 9, 1814-December 2, 1822).
- There are monuments to Robert Lee Glover, who was lost at sea in 1944, and Allen Owens Wood, buried at sea from a Japanese prison ship in 1945. Both died in the service during WWII. Clarence Crocker and Corbett Laws also died in service in 1944. Several "sons of Liberty" died in the Civil War, but none are known to be buried at Liberty.
- No other war dead are documented in the cemetery, but during WWI (1917-1919), when there was an epidemic of influenza in the U.S., 25 persons were buried, including 8 children under the age of 8 years.
- The 1970's census included 15 names of persons buried in the cemetery whose markers were not located in the 1999 inventory.
- There are 15 "unnamed" infants with granite markers and 11 graves of children with unreadable markers.

Reading the Map

1. The map is arranged to be read from the perspective of U.S. 221.
2. The sections are labeled as noted on the map.
3. The rows are numbered east to west with Row 1 being closest to U.S. 221.
4. The gravesites are numbered south to north (left to right as seen from U.S. 221).
5. Each gravesite is noted by section, row and gravesite number (e.g. J.14.04 for Ella Mae Glover).

Contents

1. The alphabetical listing contains all (and only) the names identifiable by gravestones and identified on the census of the cemetery done in the late 1970's. Several names from the 1970's census are not yet located in the cemetery itself.
2. The sectional listing is a guide to all the gravesites in the cemetery, including those that are unmarked, those that are marked by a fieldstone, those that are marked by an unreadable marker and those that are apparently unused.
